Jeff Davis—Arrangement for His Trial.

From the Herald of the 28th, we extract the following particulars relative to the trial of Jefferson Davis:

The language lately used by President Johnson in his interview with the delegates of the South Carolina Convention has added much to the grave interest felt by the people at large regarding the fate of Jeff. Davis. An unauthorized statement to the effect that Davis would be paroled on the same terms as were Stephens, Reagan, Campbell and others, was published throughout the country, and fears were entertained by many that the chief traitor would escape unpunished. The remarks of President Johnson on the occasion alluded to have made it apparent that he is firmly resolved that Jefferson Davis shall be tried. The determination of the President is not a sudden resolve, intended to quiet the numerous memorialists sueing for Davis' pardon, but a conclusion which he long since deliberately arrived at. The question was thoroughly discussed by the Cabinet in August last, and it was then decided not only that the trial should take place, but all the proper details for its prosecution were arranged.

It was expressly declared and understood that the purpose of the government in the proceeding to be instituted should be not to satisfy any craving for vengeance, but simply to pursue to its proper issue the old and often declared policy of Mr. Johnson to "make treason odious." Treason the President considers a crime, traitors as criminals, and his purpose is to make the crime and the criminals as offensive in the eyes of just men as more ignoble crimes and less dignified criminals.

THE CHARGE—TREASON.

The prisoner is to be arraigned on the charge of treason in levying war against the United States, and the plan of the prosecution will embrace no other charge. All charge of complicity with Wirz, &c., are to be abandoned, and the purpose of the prosecution will be to define the nature of treason and fix its punishment. As the Wirz trial was intended to reveal the inhumanities of the rebel leaders and forever disgrace the rebel Confederacy in the eyes of the world, the trial of Davis is intended the equally odious the treason which had bred such horrors. It was also determined that the Wirz trial should be the last trial by court martial. The trial of Davis will be before the highest tribunal in the land. It is not known as yet whether Chief Justice Chase will preside, but it is presumed that he will.

THE TIME SET FOR THE TRIAL.

At the Cabinet session in August, when the details were arranged, it was decided that the trial of Davis should immediately follow that of Wirz, but the long delays in that case may tend to delay that of Davis.

THE PROSECUTING COUNSEL.

The Attorney General was authorized to select three counsel to aid him in the prosecution. Mr. Speed is a native of the South, and it was decided that another Southern and two Northern lawyers should be retained. It was suggested that it was desirable that the army should also be represented.—The following attorneys were finally selected as the prosecuting counsel:

Hon. James Speed, Attorney General of the United States.

Hon. John H. Clifford, formerly Attorney General of Massachusetts.

Major General Lowell H. Rousseau, member of Congress elect from Kentucky.

Wm. H. Evarts, of New York city.

THE COUNSEL FOR THE DEFENCE.

It has been understood for several months past that Mr. Davis had selected his counsel or had accepted the services of the following gentlemen:

Chas. O'Conor, of New York.

Ransom H. Gillett, of Albany, N. Y.

It is probable that the prisoner will himself supervise, if he does not conduct, his defence.

THE PRINCIPLES INVOLVED IN THE TRIAL.

The trial of Jefferson Davis for treason will be the most important criminal trial which this country or age has witnessed, and will command universal attention. It involves principals of the very gravest importance and of vital interest to the existence of the country as a unit. The decision of the Court in the case will involve not only the defining of treason and its punishment, but also decide by law the question of the right of secession—a question already negatived by the result of the war and the action of the several State reconstruction conventions.—The trial will be the last victory or defeat of the cause of the Union. The acquittal of Davis would indeed make treason respectable, as Robert Toombs threatened it should be by reason of its formidableness, while his conviction will forever render the cause as odious as even Mr. Johnson could hope for.

From Washington.

THE COLORED TROOPS AND THE BOUNTY QUESTION.

The Secretary of War has, it is said, prohibited the payment of bounties to such of the colored troops as were not free on the 18th of April, 1861, thus setting aside the decision of the Second Comptroller which was based on the opinion of the Attorney General. The law provides that colored volunteers shall be placed on the same footing with white volunteers in regard to pay, clothing and subsistence, but not as to bounties.

SOUTHERN RAILROADS.

Agents of some of the most important railroads in the country are intending to leave Washington tomorrow for a short trip in the South, to arrange for a reorganization of the old system of coupon tickets over railroads of both sections of the country.

From Georgia.

THE STATE CONVENTION.

In the Georgia State Convention, on the 26th inst., Mr. Anderson, of Chatham, introduced a resolution to appoint a committee of five to memoralize the President for the release of Jefferson Davis.

Mr. Joshua Hill moved for its indefinite postponement, which was voted down. The motion to lay the resolution on the table was also negatived. The resolution was amended to include all Federal prisoners, and was then adopted by a heavy majority.

An ordinance repealing the ordinance of secession was adopted, and the resolutions of the secession convention which were incompatible with the civil and military laws of the United States were repealed.

An ordinance to redistrict the State was adopted. Seven Congressional districts are thus made.

An election was ordered for the 15th of November for Governor, Congressmen and Assemblymen.

Secretary McCulloch has ordered an examination of clerks in his Department, with a view to ascertain whose places can be filled with disabled soldiers.

An explosion of a tug occurred at Norfolk on the evening of the 27th instant, killing all on board, five men, including the captain and crew and Wm. Petton, agent of the Boston steamers.

Utmost Forgiven on Dr. Hale.

I wish to say for Dr. Hale, that he is a mean, low flung dog, and he only prosecuted me to speculate on my blood, by publishing pamphlets, worked up lies, from beginning to end. I never gave him any reason in the world to seek my life. I hope, however, that God will forgive him for the wrongs he has done me. I could well imagine how Dr. McGlosson wanted me prosecuted, for he honestly believed that I killed his brother.

I am in good health and spirits. My sleep is undisturbed by dreams, and I have just concluded to give myself up to these good friends of mine around here, and if they are determined to hang me, it is all right. I would like to live for my family, for they have lost all. I leave them penniless. I am not worth a dollar. I do not fear death, but I love my family, and am grieved to leave them on the world without means. I have a firm belief in God and the future. A minister of the Presbyterian Church was here to-day. I am pleased to meet and talk with him. I was not surprised when the sentence of death was read to me. I was looking for it daily. If my family had plenty I could die without a murmur.

Champ was furnished with some brandy. He requested the Lieutenant to get him a bottle of pure brandy, to take on the morning he was to be hung. He also requested that a raised cherry coffin be furnished him. In answer to a question, he remarked that he was considered one of the best marksmen in his part of the country, and rarely aimed at anything but Tinker Dave, but which he brought down.

We had a second interview with Champ on Thursday. He appeared lively and talked finely. He resumed by stating that he believed he ought to have had a trial by the civil courts. That he did not desire to criminate any of his friends, or he might say a great deal. He remarked that his wife and daughter had arrived, and that he had had a very pleasant interview with them. He told us that his remains would be given to his wife, and that she would take them to the pure soil of White county, two miles above Sparta. He said, in answer to a question, that "if he lived" until the 29th of November he would be 44 years of age. He remarked that he had no choice of the manner of death; it all amounts to the same thing in the end. He had been shaved just before we came, and looked well. His health was never better, he told us, than at that time.

He requested the Lieutenant to ascertain from General Thomas if his horse and equipments, now in the hands of Colonel Blackburn, will be turned over to his wife. He thinks they are his property, and his wife should have them.

We were exclusively permitted to see Champ in his cell yesterday, by his own request, and made the following statement in addition to what we had previously given us, swearing before God that every word is true:

I surrendered to Gen'l Thomas, on the letter or order sent to all armed bands, me with the rest. I did not think they would treat me as they have done.—I am the same man I was before the war, and my intentions are the same, and will be till the last minute of my life. I don't know what men in high office can think of in sending out such men as Colonel Blackburn and others for the purpose of inducing me to come in for the sake of hanging me. He told me I was no worse than the rest, and that I should be protected, and that he was glad to see me.

I was a Southern man at the start. I am yet, and will die a Rebel. I believe I was right in all I did. I don't think I done anything wrong at any time. I committed my deeds in a cool and deliberate manner. I killed a good many men, of coure, I don't deny that, but never killed a man whom I did not know was seeking my life. It is false that I never took any prisoners. I have taken a great many, and after keeping them awhile, paroled them. I tried to prove this during my trial, but they would not give me time to do it.

I don't think I had a fair or just trial. I wish to thank Mrs. Blackman for her kindness to me during my trial. One of the witnesses against me (Louis Duval) told the truth in every particular. Also Miss Dowdy, except in one or two words. I had always heard that the Federals would not take me prisoner, but shoot me down, wherever found. That is what made me kill more than I should have done. They never got a man that belonged to my company or Bledsoe's company but what they killed, and of course they might expect that I would not miss doing the same with their men.

Except the Dowdys and Louis Duval, of the witnesses against me, I have little faith in them or anything they would swear to.

I will repeat that I die a Rebel out and out, and my last request is that my body be removed to White county, Tenn., and be buried in good Rebel soil.—My own witnesses were true to me.—Nashville Dispatch, Oct. 21.

—Organizing—the Fenians in Texas.

—Emerson Etheridge, it is reported, has been acquitted.

—Thanksgiving in Maine November 23, in Massachusetts and New Hampshire November 30.

—Six inches of snow in Aroostook county, Maine, and fifteen inches thirty miles further North.

—The bonds of the "Irish Republic," which the Fenians hope to establish, are issued, and are very creditable specimens of engraving.

—Dan Voorhees and Judge Clay had a fist-fight over a law point, at Greencastle, Ind., a few days ago. It don't appear which licked—but they both liquored.

—Private letters from Western Texas say the Confederates who went to Mexico when the Trans-Mississippi army surrendered are returning, disgusted with the Mexicans.

—The planet discovered in Michigan is supposed to be one discovered last May in Madras. Its name is Sappho. Probably not one person in eleven thousand will ever see Sap.

—We learn that Allen Carter went to the house of Bushrod Lilly of Stanly county, on the night of the 18th inst., assaulted him with a bowie knife, and murdered him in cold blood. Carter made his escape. Provocation not known.

—It is stated that Sterling Price and other officers of the late Confederate army have received from the Emperor Maximilian the commission of generals in the Mexican army. This is a mistake. Sterling Price has gone to Brazil, probably to seek a residence there.

—Gen. Canby has confiscated two Mobile steamboats for "having refused to transport officers of the General Government travelling upon official duty, coupling that refusal with expressions of disrespect and disloyalty to the Government of the United States."

THE CITY.

☞ Persons in city and country are requested, at all times, to furnish us verbal or written information of any events of public interest which may transpire in their neighborhoods, or of which they may have knowledge.

SMALL NOTES.—We are requested to state for the information of merchants and others that the National Bank of this city has on hand a large amount of fractional currency, of all denominations, which they will exchange for large notes, in sums of ten dollars and upwards.

SENTENCED TO FORT PULASKI.—Mr. Marcom, of Chatham, who has been detained in this city for several months, charged with shooting and killing a negro—the circumstances connected with which we stated at the time—and who has been tried by a military commission, has, we learn, been sentenced to hard labor in the above fort for twelve months. We learn, however, with much pleasure, that a petition is in circulation, and has already been numerously signed, praying his Excellency President Johnson to reprieve Mr. Marcom. We shall be glad to learn that the prayer of the petitioners has been granted, for the condemned has always sustained a good character at home, and is in fact a worthy citizen.

GRIEF INDULGED.—Seated on the curb stone in front of Grave's late last evening, was an old typo, who gave vent to his phelinks in the most classical style. He feared that the poor "all over the broad extent of this city" would be reduced to great suffering the ensuing winter, for the lack of food, vittels and whiskey. We urged him to "dry up his tears," as a merciful Providence would provide, through good men, everything needful for the destitute. "Yes," he said, "I hadn't thought of that,

But sadder thoughts than these o'ertake me,
Which thicken and increase,
His Excellency did not make me
A Justice of the Peace."

Considering him inconsolable, we trudged on, to make a note of the poetry before it escaped our memory.

TOM BROCK.

An honest lad was Tom Brock—
A hatter by his trade;
His hair was red, he wore a stock,
And lived at Umberslade;
His house built in a tasty style,
Bespoke how well he raised a pile.

Poor Tom, however, had one great fault—he put his beavers up to an enormous figure and then—day of extortion, Kinsey, at the corner of Fayetteville and Market streets, adopts a wiser plan and sells hats, caps and other goods at a startlingly low figure.

FREEMAN'S BUREAU.—A wag of no ordinary attainments in the science of wit, approached a colored gen'men skilled in the use of tools, and enquired if he could tell him where he could purchase an ordinary sized freedman's bureau, with "full instructions" written on the top—one that would answer for only the half of a county. The unbleached could not see the point, but innocently answered that the new patterns of furniture had not yet been received from the North. He would be glad, however, to make him a sideboard if he would take one of our pine stained.

BAPTIST STATE CONVENTION.—It will be borne in mind that this body will convene on Monday next in Wake Forrest College, on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad. As a denomination, the Baptists of this State are very numerous, and among its clergy numbers some of the very best talent. The session will, we doubt not, be one of great interest, and we would feel under obligations to some friend who may be in attendance to give us daily reports, so that they may appear in our columns every morning.

STILL ANOTHER.—Captain Garoutte identified on yesterday two animals, one the property of the United States, and the other the property of a freedman, and took possession of them. The rogue neglected to obliterate the "U S." brand on the left shoulder of the horse, which neglect led to the discovery. This identification was made within the city limits.

The case was undergoing examination before the proper tribunal, and somebody will, doubtless, be called on to suffer.

TEMPERANCE.—It is very well known to the world and the rest of mankind that ye local, and all connected with this institution, are temperance men of the "arightest sect," at least we thought so, but find that we are sadly mistaken, for it is reported, with some air of truth, too, that there lives an honest old dame in this vicinity who refuses to have a cow on her premises that has horns.

MORE TURPENTINE.—On Sunday night last, some person or persons, not having the fear of God or the law before their eyes, invaded the premises of Mr. H. A. Hodge, of this county, and took therefrom three valuable horses. They have not yet been overtaken, but we understand they were tracked to this city and, in all probability, will be caught.

TO BE SUCCESSFUL.—we take it for granted is the wish of every candidate in the present campaign. They must therefore supply the ammunition promptly to the scouts and we inform them that election tickets, in any quantity, from one to fifty thousand, can be printed at this office on the shortest possible notice. Price, one dollar per thousand.

The Western cotton fellows have not an unhappier state of existence than that of living exclusively in a delicious garden, surrounded by beautiful women reposing on flowers. These Western people to say the least, have drawn a beautiful picture.

PERSONAL.—It affords us pleasure to announce to our readers that Lieut. Col. J. A. Campbell, A. A. G. at Department Headquarters, has received a brevet promotion to the rank of Colonel. A more deserving recognition of true merit has not been made by the War Department in a long time.

"Artemus Ward" has at last found something even more remunerative than "wax figgers" or Mormon lectures. A rich old uncle has lately died in London—as in the fifth act of an old comedy—and has left the popular showman a fortune of some forty thousand pounds sterling. A letter has just announcing the intelligence.

ITS PHILOSOPHY.—Sozodont is an antacid. Sozodont is an antiputrescent. Sozodont is an antizymic. Sozodont is all vegetable and entirely harmless. Hence it cleanses the teeth from noxious concretions, stops the decomposition of their substance, sweetens the breath, antinoises the gums, and is the safest and best preparation of its class in existence.

DAILY PROGRESS.

RALEIGH, N. C.

TUESDAY, OCT. 31, 1865.

NATIONAL UNION ANDREW JOHNSON TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR:

WILLIAM W. HOLDEN,

OF WAKE COUNTY.

Election Thursday, 9th November, 1865.

FOR CONGRESS:

FOURTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT,

COL. J. P. H. RUSS,

OF WAKE COUNTY.

"Every dollar of the debt created to aid the rebellion against the United States should be repudiated finally and forever.—ANDREW JOHNSON to Gov. HOLDEN.

Jonathan Worth, and the "Sentinel," the organ of the disaffected faction that brought him forward for Governor, are in favor of taxing the people to pay the rebel State debt.

The Olney Line of Steamers.

After months of untiring labor and energy, says the Newbern Times, Mr. Olney has succeeded in perfecting his arrangements so as to make the "People's Line Steamers" a serviceable, sure and speedy line.—The fare has been reduced very materially and convenience added to render travel as pleasant as possible. Baggage is checked through to Norfolk, so that no trouble is now experienced on that score.—Finely furnished and swiftly running steamers now convey passengers without loss of connection, and the line is a general favorite.

In addition to this enterprise he has established a line connecting Williamston, Plymouth, Edenton, Elizabeth City, Little Washington and Hyde county Landings, with the regular line to and from this city and Norfolk. We are pleased to know that the traveling public appreciate his enterprising spirit.—The steamers leave Newbern every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, at 4 o'clock, P. M.

President Johnson Sustained by the Supreme Court.

Judge Nelson, of the Supreme Court, in the case of "The Circassian," clearly defined the theory of President Johnson, and admitted it to be the law of the land. Chief Justice Chase concurred in this opinion. This decision was reported before the surrender of the Confederate armies, and uses the following language:

The capture was but the restoration of the ancient possession, authority and laws of the country, the continuance and permanency of which, so far as the right is involved, depend not on conquest, nor on the success or vicissitudes of armies, but upon the constitution of the armies of the United States which extended over every portion of the Union, and is the supreme law of the land.

The conquest of territory within the States where the laws of the United States have been suspended, by reason of armed resistance of the citizens, is but the restoration of the ancient possession, authority and laws of the country; the continuance and permanence of which depends not upon conquest, but upon the constitution of the United States.

The Cholera.

The Department of State is in receipt of dispatches from the Consul of the United States at La Rochelle, in which the progress of the cholera at that place is alluded to in substance as follows: The cholera seems to follow the railroad from Marseilles via Arlesand Nimes towards Bordeaux. The policy of the French press appears to be secretive, in order to allay the fears and apprehensions of the people. One case has appeared there, that of a child taken ill at 3 p. m., deceased and buried the same evening. The Consul states that in 1832 the cholera did not by any means overlook La Rochelle, and in the Isle de Re, lying opposite the fort, one-sixth of the entire population was swept away. It further stated that the general good health and careful avoidance of excesses are the best safeguards against the epidemic.

Home Political Matters.

A. R. McDonald has withdrawn from the canvass in the 3d Congressional District in favor of Mr. Fuller.

Hon. B. S. Gaither is announced as a candidate in the 7th.

H. M. Pritchard having been solicited to run for Congress in the Charlotte district, says:

Some kind friends have honored me by announcing my name for Congress, and cherishing no political aspirations beyond an ardent hope of an early restoration of our constitutional rights in the Union, I very respectfully and peremptorily decline the candidacy.

Harmony and union will be best subserved by concentration upon the best Union man for the distinguished position of Governor, and believing that that man will be found under the announcement, viz: "Andrew Johnson-Holden-Union-Ticket," I shall act accordingly.

EXPERIMENTAL COTTON GROWING IN THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA.—Hon. Isaac Newton, Commissioner of Agriculture, has received several fine specimen bolls of cotton grown in the experimental grounds of the Department, planted on the 20th of May last, and just matured. The Commissioner is of the opinion that if the seed is planted as early in the season as April 20th, and the ground properly stimulated by fertilisers, that the cotton would equal in quantity, if not in quality, that produced in this State.

THE HILL-YANCEY DIFFICULTY.—We find the following card in our Southern exchanges:

LAGRANGE, GA., September 30th, 1865.

My Dear Sir:—The article in the Nashville Republican Banner, of the 26th instant, purporting to give an account of the manner of the death of Hon. William L. Yancey, is most grossly incorrect, and does injustice to both Mr. Yancey and myself.

Thank you for calling my attention to it.

Yours very truly, B. H. HILL.

[BY AUTHORITY.]

[illegible]

[illegible] compensation to attend [illegible] elections for delegates to this convention.

Be it ordained by the delegates of the people of the State of North Carolina, in Convention assembled, That the provisional sheriffs of the several counties in this State are entitled to and are hereby allowed the same compensation for holding the late elections for delegates to this convention as sheriffs are now allowed by law for holding elections for members of the General Assembly, and the Treasurer is hereby directed to allow the same to such sheriffs in the settlement of their accounts.

[Ratified in convention this nineteenth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

EDWIN G. READE, President.

JAMES H. MOORE, Secretary of the Convention.
R. C. BADGER, Assistant Secretary.

AN ORDINANCE

To organize a temporary force for the preservation of law and order.

Be it ordained by the delegates of the people in convention assembled, and it is hereby ordained by the authority of the same, That the sheriffs appointed under the provisional government, shall, as soon as practicable, summons the justices of the peace as appointed by the Provisional Governor, for their respective counties, to meet at the court house of their several counties, on a day certain; and at [illegible] assembled, shall have power, and they are hereby authorized to enrol and organize as many military companies, as auxiliaries to the county police, as they in their discretion may deem necessary for the preservation of law and order, under the following rules and regulations: The said justices shall enrol all or any portion of the free white male residents between the ages of eighteen and thirty-five years, and if necessary extend the enrollments to forty-five years. They shall appoint or direct the election of all necessary officers. They shall prescribe the duties, police or otherwise, to be discharged by said forces. They shall make such exemptions as they may deem proper. They shall have power to enforce all their orders, by the infliction of such pains and penalties as they may consider just and proper. And in case of any serious disturbance or outbreak, the said force shall be deemed auxiliary to the county police, and shall be subject to the same orders. And the said justices from time to time shall have power, and they are hereby authorized to adopt all such measures as they may consider necessary to render said force efficient for the purposes herein set forth.

Be it further ordained, That this ordinance shall remain in force until the organization of the militia, or until modified or repealed by the General Assembly.

Be it further ordained, That the clerk of the convention transmit a copy of this ordinance to each sheriff and county court clerk within the State immediately after the ratification of the same.

[Ratified in convention this eighteenth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.]

EDWIN G. READE, President.
Jas. H. Moore, Secretary of the Convention.
R. C. Badger, Assistant Secretary.

AN ORDINANCE

To give publicity to the ordinance ordering elections on the second Thursday in November next.

Be it ordained by the people of North Carolina, in convention assembled, and it is hereby ordained, That the Provisional Governor be empowered and requested to take such steps as in his judgment may be necessary to make known to the people of North Carolina the ordinances ordering elections on the second Thursday of November, eighteen hundred and sixty-five.

[Read three times and ratified in convention the 12th day of October A. D., 1865.]

EDWIN G. READE, President.
JAS. H. MOORE, Secretary of the Convention.
R. C. BADGER, Assistant Secretary.

A RESOLUTION

calling on the Governor for copies of certain acts of the General Assembly passed in secret session.

Resolved, That the Governor lay before the convention the acts of the General Assembly, passed in secret session, under which were issued certain bonds in England called Rosin and Cotton Bonds of the State.

[Ratified in convention this eighteenth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.]

EDWIN G. READE, President.
JAS. H. MOORE, Secretary of the Convention.
R. C. BADGER, Assistant Secretary.

RESOLUTION

Asking for the removal of the colored troops from North Carolina.

Resolved, That the President of this convention, in behalf of this body, request the President of the United States, if not incompatible with the public interest, to order the removal from the State of North Carolina, at the earliest practicable period, of all the colored troops now in the service of the United States, within the limits of said State; as the presence of these troops is, in the opinion of the convention, very injurious to the colored people and excessively annoying to the white people of this State.

[Ratified in convention this seventeenth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.]

EDWIN G. READE, President.
JAS. H. MOORE, Secretary of the Convention.
R. C. BADGER, Assistant Secretary.

RESOLUTION

With regard to Government horses and mules.

Whereas, many horses and mules were taken by the Federal army in its passage through many parts of the State last spring, and many broken down horses and mules left in their stead; and whereas the Federal authorities in many parts of the State are now proceeding to collect said horses and mules, to the great injury of the citizens holding said horses and mules; Therefore,

Be it resolved by the delegates of the people of North Carolina, in convention assembled, That William W. Holden, Provisional Governor of North Carolina, be and he is hereby requested to correspond with General Ruger, or the commanding General in this State, respectfully requesting that the citizens holding said horses and mules be allowed to retain the same.

[Ratified in convention this eighteenth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.]

EDWIN G. READE, President.
Jas. H. Moore, Secretary of the Convention.
R. C. Badger, Assistant Secretary.

—The Montreal Witness officer in referring to the Southern [illegible] of clemency towards Mr. Davis, conveys the following intimation which we regard as significant:

"In saying that [illegible] clemency for Mr. Johnson [illegible] executive power of the people, good may ensue, we feel authorized more by the generosity of the North—which would, as we do not doubt it would, spare this—than by the affecting supplication of the South which pleads for [illegible]

TO THE VOTERS OF WAKE COUNTY.

Having declared myself a candidate for the office of Clerk of Wake county, to be voted for on the 9th of November, and it is understood I have your support, I will say that I will be grateful for the favor, and will endeavor to discharge the duties of the office with industry and fidelity.

It will be impossible for me to see you all before the election, and you will naturally wish to know whom I am for and against. I am for DAVID A. WINSTON, for Governor, for Superior Court Judge, and against Buxton, Dockery, for Superior Court Judge, and against Buxton, Dockery, Allen Moss, and Hugh Waddell.

Hoping you will vote for me, I am your obedient servant, oct31-2tdw DAVID A. WICKER.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE FOURTH CONGRESSIONAL District, composed of the counties of Orange, Chatham, Granville, Warren, Franklin, Nash, Johnston and Wake:

FELLOW CITIZENS:—I hereby announce myself a candidate to represent you in the next Congress of the United States. The short time between this and the day of election precludes the possibility of a canvass. Indeed, in the present condition of the country, a lengthened political campaign should be deprecated by all. The particular measures that will claim the attention of the coming Congress cannot now with certainty be known. Hence, like speculations and promises are idle. There are, for the most part, vain and impertinent. There is a question, however, which seems to be uppermost in every mind to a large extent, the minds of the people, both North and South, but which properly comes within the province of the State Legislature. I allude to negro suffrage, to which I am utterly opposed. I am in favor, as we desire all of us are, of the speedy restoration of civil law to the States.

If I am honored, fellow-citizens, by your suffrages with a seat in Congress, I can only promise you to guard zealously your best interests—to devote what ability I may possess to the advocacy and preservation of all your rights—and to uphold and maintain, to the full extent of my power, whatever measures will redound to the welfare, freedom and honor of North Carolina. I sincerely and ardently desire that our people may soon be restored to the enjoyment of all their rights of both person and property, and that they may again be blessed with prosperity, liberty and happiness.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

A. ARRINGTON.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

In the year 1840, the writer embarked in the Drug business in the city of Philadelphia, and while thus engaged, made several experiments in regard to the most valuable mode of preparing Fluid Extracts. My efforts were successful. The articles being approved and used by the medical faculty—I was desirous of placing them before the public, but hesitated for some time before proceeding to resort to newspaper advertising, knowing the prejudices that existed in the minds of many against using advertised Medicines or Nostrums, but through the advice of friends and those who had used them this objection was overcome.

After 18 years' exertions, commencing in a small way, the popularity of my articles has extended to all parts of the United States, and widely throughout foreign countries—and this in the face of much opposition.—Every means has been resorted to by unprincipled dealers since their merit and success have been known—such as advertising large bottles at less price, censuring all other preparations, and even copying my advertisements and labels. I am happy to state that out of the many who have resorted to this, none have been successful.

MY OBJECT

in this notice is to make facts known to the public and reliable dealers, believing, after so many years' existence, that the Druggists will discountenance such proceedings, and that the reputation of my articles may not be damaged by the use of inferior or spurious ones. Knowing that many may read this article who are unacquainted with me, I append a few remarks from those of my native city, and whose names are known in all parts of the world:

"Having been personally acquainted with Mr. H. T. Helmbold, it affords me pleasure in stating I have been most favorably impressed with his energy and integrity, and have looked at his success." WM. WEIGHTMAN,
Firm of Powers & Weightman,
Ninth and Brown Streets, Philadelphia.

[Evening Bulletin, Philadelphia.]

When on a visit to the city of New York, a few days since, I was induced to call on one old friend and townsman, Mr. H. T. Helmbold, Druggist, 594 Broadway, N. Y. His store is a model—a perfect gem—the handsomest of any kind we have ever had the pleasure of viewing, and so extensive, being 34 feet front, five stories in height, and over 200 feet deep. It indeed affords us much pleasure to know that he has been so successful. This is ample evidence of the merits of his articles—as his whole business experience we have not known of the success of any articles without merit—advertising only bringing the name before the people."

[Boston Herald.]

We do not like to advertise worthless wares, or articles calculated to deceive our readers; and when we find an advertiser like Mr. Helmbold, whom we have known for years, gradually extend his advertising from year to year until he becomes the largest advertiser in the United States, we are satisfied that the statements made in regard to his articles must be correct."

The writer reluctantly inserts the above, and would do so were he not a stranger to many; and concludes by naming the names of his articles, and the diseases for which they have been used by many thousands with complete success.

BURNING OF THE MUSEUM!

LETTER FROM MR. P. T. BARNUM.

New York, July 14, 1865.

Messrs. Herring & Co.:

Gentlemen—Though the destruction of the American Museum has proved a serious loss to myself and the public, I am happy to verify the old adage that "every cloud has a silver lining," and, consequently, congratulate you that your well known safes have again demonstrated their superior fire-proof qualities in an ordeal of unusual severity.

The safe you made for me some time ago was in the office of the Museum, on the second floor, back part of the building, and in the hottest of the fire.

After twenty-four hours of trial it was found among the debris, and on opening it this day has yielded up its contents in very good order—books, papers, policies of insurance, bank bills, all in condition for immediate use, and a noble commentary on the trustworthiness of Herring's Fire-Proof Safes.

Truly yours,
P. T. BARNUM.

NEW SKIRT FOR 1865.

The Great Invention of the Age in Hoop Skirts.

J. W. BRADLEY'S NEW PATENT DUPLEX ELLIPTIC, (OR DOUBLE) SPRING SKIRT.

THIS INVENTION CONSISTS OF DUPLEX (OR two) Elliptic Pure Refined Steel Springs, ingeniously braided tightly and firmly together, side to edge, making the toughest, most flexible, plastic and durable spring ever used. They seldom bend or break, like the single Springs, and consequently preserve their perfect and beautiful shape more than twice as long as any Single Spring Skirt that ever has or can be made.

The wonderful flexibility and great comfort and pleasure to any Lady wearing the Duplex Elliptic Skirt will be experienced particularly in all crowded Assemblies, Operas, Carriages, Railroad Cars, Church Pews, Arm-Chairs, for Promenade and House Dress, as the Skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small place as easily and conveniently as a Silk or Muslin Dress.

A Lady having enjoyed the Pleasure, Comfort and Great Convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring Skirt for a single day will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For Children, Misses and Young Ladies they are superior to all other.

The Hoops are covered with 3 ply double twisted thread and will wear twice as long as the Single yarn covering which is used on all Single Steel Hoop Skirts. The three bottom rods on every Skirt are also Double Steel, and twice or double covered to prevent the covering from wearing off the rods when dragging down stairs, stone steps, &c., &c., which they are constantly subject to when in use.

All are made of the best and whitest Corded Tapes, and are the best quality in every part, giving to the wearer the most graceful and perfect shape possible, and are unquestionably the lightest, most durable, comfortable and economical Skirt ever made.

WEST, BRADLEY & CARY, (late J. L. & J. C. West,) Proprietors of the Celebrated Cable manufacturers, 97 Chambers and 79 & 81 Reade Streets, New York.

For sale by all wholesale stores in this City, and throughout the United States, Canada, West Indies, Mexico, South America and Europe. Inquire for the Duplex Elliptic (or Double) Spring Skirt.

TELEGRAPHIC.

ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORTS.

No Dispatches.

Owing to some cause or other our usual telegraphic report had not come to hand at the hour of going to press, half past eleven.

Voodooism in Mobile—Old Superstition Revived—A Night Around the Cauldron.

I the good old days of Louisiana, when Lafitte was doing his quiet little business along the lake shore, and Barataria was synonymous with the Isle of Pines, when gens d'armes stood on the corners of the streets of New Orleans, and watchmen with club and rattle and leather cap were not—in those good old days Voodooism was religiously believed in by all the colored population, and by not a few of those whose color should have been a warranty of more intelligence. For years past the infernal rites of this dark superstition have been conducted near New Orleans, only at long intervals, and with the utmost secrecy. The police succeeded, in one instance, some twelve years since, in making a clean haul of the negroes, including the principal Fetish Man, old Obi Woman—natives of Africa—and all the charms, etc., used in the incantations. The negroes were severely punished, and a check given to the practice and the rites of the superstition.

We have heard of such scenes as these being enacted in or near Mobile by the negroes, but never till last night did we witness anything of the kind in this city. In company with a few policemen we went to a house situated beyond the gas works, and occupied by an old negro who claims to be an Obi man. Approaching the house very carefully, and peering through the crevices of the walls, a wild, weird spectacle was presented. Around a small fire of pine in the middle of the floor—or rocm, for floor there was none—and over which was hung a pot, sat a group of negro men and women entirely naked, their hair, or wool, twisted into pig tail curls, and ornamented with sprigs of some kind of herb, intermingled with dried roots, their eyes closed; the master of ceremonies or High Fetish Priest, with a snake skin around his neck and his wool grizzled with age and garnished more profusely than the rest, was chanting something in a droning voice, while the remainder of the "congregation" responded, as it were, with a low and a long drawn howl. The old negro with the snake skin clapped his hands, and the whole party rose and commenced a most furious stamping in a circle around the pot.

This being over they all squatted down again, and the "Old man" resumed his chant, at the same time holding in his hand a covered basket, from which he drew and dropped into the pot—first, a dead snake, next a frog, then a young alligator or lizard; and, last of all, the roots and herbs of his own and of other negroes. Silence was observed by all for some minutes after the last deposit had been made, after which the pot was taken from the fire, and while the nauseating mixture was yet reeking hot, they each dipped the end of the middle finger of the left hand into it, and applied the end of their finger to their tongues; another dip into the pot was taken with the middle finger of the right hand, and certain cabalistic figures described on the breasts, forehead and shoulders—one assisting the other in the operation. Not a word was spoken until their clothes had been resumed and they had got clear of the house.

Although on high occasions the Fetish or "Old man" may demand a human sacrifice in his inhuman rites, and which sacrifice is generally a young child, nothing of the kind was attempted in the Vondoo pow-wow of last night. The presence of the police would, of course, have prevented anything of this nature, had it ever been thought necessary by the old negro conducting the affair.—Old negro women were sometimes "used up" as "material" in these meetings, at Vondooton, near New Orleans, one of whom escaped the sacrificial knife on one occasion, and caused the arrest of the whole gang.—Mobile Tribune.

A Masonic association in New York, called the Lodge of Perfection, performed a singular ceremony last week—a sort of imitation of Christian baptism. It is described as follows:

"The members having entered in procession, were followed by a party with six children, some borne on cushions and others led by sponsors and parents—a man following behind with the sacred triangle of burning candles. This company made three circuits, escorted by the lodge, the Masons chanting praises. Then advancing to the East, they stood before the Grand Master. Prayer was read and a hymn was sung. The orator then addressed the sponsors and children, admonishing them to be true to themselves, their neighbor, their country and their God. Another prayer was then repeated. A font of perfumed water stood before the Grand Master. Taking each child's hand, he immersed it in the water, repeating its name and the words, 'I wash thee with pure water. May God give thee and maintain thee in that innocence and purity of heart of which this cleansing is a symbol.' He then marked on the forehead of each child a triangle with consecrated oil, and pronounced the invocation of blessing. A hymn was then sung; the brethren knelt and uttered a solemn vow to watch and protect these children through life. Each partook of salt in confirmation of the pledge. A locket was presented to each of the children, and a ring to the boys; also the triangle and an apron. A benediction completed the rite."

SOUTH CAROLINA.—A dispatch dated the 27th says that Wade Hampton has been elected Governor by a large majority.

In the Legislature, on the 27th, a message was received from Gov. Perry transmitting the report of the Commissioners appointed by the Convention to prepare a system of laws adapted to the new state of affairs. The report embraces a bill regulating the domestic relations of the slaves; a bill preliminary to legislation induced by the emancipation of the slaves; and a code for the regulation of labor and for the protection and government of the colored population of the State.

Resolutions were adopted appointing a committee to collect, under oath, all evidence of unwarrantable seizures of cotton and other private property since the war, to be laid before the President of the United States.

The 15th of November was fixed for the election of members of Congress.

—A story is told about Rev. Robert J. Breckinridge, who was temporary chairman of the Baltimore Convention last year, and the late Thomas F. Marshall, of Kentucky. Both wishing to establish a reputation in early life, measured lances with Henry Clay, and, of course, got the worst of it. A few years afterward the two met—the latter being on one of his customary sprees. The lawyer exclaimed to the divine: "Ah! Bob, it was an unlucky day for us when we tilted against the Great Harry! It drove me to the bottle and you to the pulpit, Bob; but I've stuck a d—— sight closer to my text than you have to yours."

The Kentucky Central railroad declines to transport negroes over the road, unless provided with written orders from their masters. Military orders are refused.

[illegible] dispatch to Minister Bigelow, that the Government must decline to make reparation and compensation for expenses made by the Alabama, or refer the question to any foreign State. The Government, however, is ready to consent to the appointment of a commission, to which shall be referred all claimings arising during the late civil war which the two powers shall agree to refer to the consideration.

Mr. Adams, in reply, considers there is now no dispute as to the fact that the recognition of the South as a belligerent was an act such as was never done by one nation toward another in a state of amity.—He charges the British Government with having acted without knowledge and upon mere presumption in assuming that evidence of the blockade was in consequence and the whole Rebellion policy.

He intimates that if the doctrines and practices of the British Government are allowed to become a rule, the United States will not be the greatest loosers thereby.

Mr. Adams does not appear to think the proposal of Russell, to refer the question in dispute to a commission, will be accepted by the United States.

JOSH BILLINGS ON HENS.—Josh Billings talks learnedly, as follows: "The best time tew sett a hen is when the hen is ready. I kant tell you what the best breed is, but the shanghigh is the meanest. It kosts as much to board one as it dus a stage hoss, and you mite as well undertake to fat a fanning mill by running oats thru it. There aint no profit in keepin a hen fur his eggs if he laze less than one a day. Hens ar very long lived, if tha don't contract the throat disease; there is a great many goes to the pot by this melankolly disease. I kant tell exactly how tew pick out a good hen, but as a general thing the long taled ones, I kno, are the least apt to scratch up the garden. Eggs packed in equal parts of salt and lime water, with the other end down, will keep from 30 tew 40 years, if they ar not disturbed. Fresh beefsteak is gud fur hens; I surpose 4 or 5 pounds a day would be awl a hen would need, at first along. I shall be happee tew advise with you, at enny time, on the hen question—and take it in eggs."

The New York Association for the Advancement of Science are discussing the practicability of bursting water.
